Life is like a metro track: we decide where to stop.

I have studied art direction in a graphic design institute (ISGMD) in Lecco (Italy).

I think everyone should be responsible and enjoy working in groups, in order to compare the ideas with the ones of others.

Nevertheless I believe in my abilities and I am able to develop a project both in group and alone because of my punctiliousness and accuracy.

Travelling is my great passion because I like discovering new cultures and meeting new people.
